Landlord letter attached to lease pack

A landlord side letter dated 30 June 2024 allowed "battery charging for pallet trucks in the loading area subject to compliance with VDE requirements and insurer conditions". Claim relevance

- The policy and lease both distinguish landlord shell property from tenant improvements.
- The tenant appears responsible for tenant-added electrical charging equipment and internal fit-out.
- The waiver of recourse may limit landlord/tenant recovery but does not obviously protect HanseLift Service GmbH.
- Repair invoices should be split between tenant-owned improvements, tenant liability to landlord, and uninsured landlord property.
